

Advanced Pediatric Therapies Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Treat you - We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.

Run our organization - We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.

Bill for your services - We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.

How else can we use or share your health information?

We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes.

Help with public health and safety issues - We can share health information about you for certain situations such as: preventing disease, reporting adverse reactions to medications, reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence, preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety.

Do research - We can use or share your information for health research.

Comply with the law - We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.

Address law enforcement, and other government requests - We can use or share health information about you for law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official, with health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law.

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions - We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get a copy of your medical record - You can ask to see or get electronic or paper copies of your medical record and other health information we have about you. We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct your medical record - You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications - You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share - You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care. If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information - You can ask for a list and description of certain disclosures by Advanced Pediatric Therapies of your medical information.

Get a copy of this privacy notice - You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you - If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated - You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting Advanced Pediatric Therapies Privacy Officer at 360.885.4684 or mailing complaint to Advanced Pediatric Therapies, 4201 NE 66th Ave, Suite 106, Vancouver, WA 98661. If we cannot resolve your concern, you also have the right to file a written complaint with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

You have both the right and choice to tell us how to share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care and how to share information in a disaster relief situation. We never market or sell personal information. In the case of fundraising we may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.

Our Responsibilities

We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information. We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information. We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it. We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

Changes to the Terms of this Notice - We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our web site. This notice was published and becomes effective on January 10, 2015.
